

Trumponomics vs Obamanomics The View from the States

June 29, 2018 8:30am-1:00pm
Sheraton Columbus at Capitol Square
Senate Room
75 East State Street
Columbus, OH 43215

Parking $15 valet, self parking $12 daily Senate Room
maximum at Columbus Commons garage

Presented by: Kyle Compton, Economic Associate & Harry Walsh, Economic Associate, REMI
Guest Presenter: Scott Nystrom, Director, FTI Consulting

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 8:30–9:00 | Coffee |
| 9:00–9:15 | Welcome and Introductions |
| 9:15–9:45 | Trumponomics vs Obamanomics: The View from the States Kyle Compton, REMI |
| 9:45–10:15 | The Economic and Fiscal Impacts of State Tax Credits Scott Nystrom, FTI Consulting In recent years, states and municipalities have reassessed their tax credits and incentives. In one example, the Bank of North Dakota has engaged FTI Consulting and its Economic Impacts Group to assess North Dakota's incentives using REMI Tax-PI. These various analyses cover the economic, demographic, and fiscal implications of tax incentives. |
| 10:15–10:45 | TranSight: Planning for the Future of Transportation Harry Walsh, REMI |
| 10:45–11:00 | Networking Break |
| 11:00–11:30 | Amazon HQ 2.0: Fiscal and Economic Analysis Kyle Compton, REMI |
| 11:30–12:00 | Steel and Aluminum Tariffs in REMI PI+ 2.2 Harry Walsh, REMI |
| 12:00–1:00 | Lunch REMI Associates will host attendees at local restaurants. |
| 1:00 | Adjourn |